

Preparing for the College Music Theater / Theater Audition
A Master Class with Broadway Actors Jane Brockman and Tim Shew

Saturday, October 21, 2017
2 - 4:30 PM

For high school students in grades 9-12 who are interested in attending college for musical theater.

$40 per student

Parents who are accompanying a participant are admitted free of charge.

Parents are encouraged to attend Part 1.

Part 1: Information session	Part 2: Mock audition & feedback
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Preparing for the college audition, even if it's a few years from now• Pursuing theater as a major in college• Choosing the right theater program• The audition process - - What are pre-screening auditions?• What to know before applying to a program• Q & A	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students who wish to perform a mock audition should come prepared to sing a one-minute selection of their choice from a Broadway musical, preferably memorized, and bring the sheet music. An accompanist will be provided.

To register, please contact Kim Barger at 717.534.3415 or kiebarger@hersheytheatre.com.

Jane Brockman

Tim Shew

With more than 35 years of experience and 14 Broadway shows between them, Jane Brockman and Tim Shew continue to work on Broadway, off-Broadway, in film and television, and as educators. They are founders of Broadway Professionals Musical Theatre Consulting www.bpmtc.com.

HERSHEY  THEATRE